

University of Montana

ScholarWorks at University of Montana

University of Montana News Releases, 1928,
1956-present

University Relations

8-8-1957

School of Business Administration faculty announced

University of Montana–Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases>

Let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation

University of Montana–Missoula. Office of University Relations, "School of Business Administration faculty announced" (1957). University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present. 89.
<https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/89>

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mso.umt.edu.

August 8, 1957

Dorsey E. Wiseman, Sumner Marcus, Richard C. McAllister, Mrs. Dana Lundahl, Charles F. Angel, and Harold L. Holt have been appointed to the School of Business Administration faculty at Montana State University, Missoula, President Carl McFarland announced.

Wiseman, associate professor, will teach in the Accounting Dept. Previously, he was an assistant professor at the University of Nebraska. His experience includes being an instructor in accounting at the University of Illinois; Utopia College, Eureka, Kan.; University of Wichita, College of Business Administration; University of Pennsylvania, Wharton School; and West Virginia University. He was also an accountant at the Empire National Bank at Clarksburg, W. Va. He received his B.S. from West Virginia University and M.B.A. from the University of Pennsylvania. He is a candidate for a Ph.D. at the University of Illinois.

Marcus, associate professor, will teach a combination of business administration and law. He comes from the University of Washington where he taught business law, corporation finance, and banking and business. Previously, he taught courses in government and business and government contract at Seattle University. He has had a private law practice in Seattle, Wash. and Boston, Mass. He was the assistant general counsel for The Renegotiation Board, and counsel, Navy Renegotiation Division, Armed Services Renegotiation Board. He has been associate counsel for the Military Renegotiation Policy and Review Board; Bureau of Ships, Navy Department; and Navy Price Adjustment Board. He was an attorney and field examiner for the National Labor Relations Board. Marcus was awarded his A.B. (cum laude) from Harvard College, M.B.A. from the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration, LL.B. (cum laude) from Harvard Law School, and is completing requirements for a D.B.A. at the University of Washington.

(more)

MONTANA STATE UNIVERSITY, Missoula

add 2, Bus. Ad. appointments

McAllister, assistant professor, will serve in the field of accounting. He has been an associate professor at Seattle University, an instructor at the University of Florida, and conducted accounting laboratory classes at the University of Washington. He received his B.A., M.A., and CPA from the University of Washington. He has completed course work for his doctorate at the University of Florida.

Mrs. Lundahl, instructor, will teach in the Secretarial Dept. She was formerly secretary to the Dean of Students at MSU. She also taught at Missoula County High School. She received her B.S. in business administration from MSU.

Angel, instructor, will conduct classes in elementary accounting. He has been finance clerk in the Military Personnel Office while in service. He attended Montana State College; received his B.S. in business administration from MSU. and has also attended the MSU School of Law.

Holt, lecturer, will instruct classes in business law. He has been an associate in the law firm of Garlington, Lohn & Robinson of Missoula since August 1954. Previous to this time, he was a special agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation; and law clerk for the Attorney General of Montana. He attended Montana State College; was awarded an LL.B. (with honors) and a B.A. (with honors) from MSU.

###